On June 19 in Bristol was held the Parchment Craft 2011, an event where all the Parchment lovers were showing their works.

I was there so, for the first time, Italy was participating at the event. I was showing my jobs, The Venice Carnival mask of Marisa Gazzini and a new idea of Laura Bucchi, necklaces and earrings.

The event, perfectly organised by Pat Murphy, was a true success, with more than 400 visitors in one day.
