On June 24, in Bristol, was held the Parchment Craft Bristol 2012, organised by Pat Murphy and sponsored by Parchment Craft Magazine. This was the second year that Italy participated and this year we double Italian participation, Rossella joined me and so we were exhibiting on two tables parchment creations done by ourselves and by other Italian parchment craft lovers. Also this year the event was a great success, for the number of exhibitors and for the number of visitors.
